IMPROVED AMBROTYPES, AND MELAINOTYPES.

T. W. KILLGORE, AMBROTYPIST & MELAINOTYPIST.

Would respectfully announce to the citizens of this place and vicinity, that his Saloon is located at for the reception of company. All who may desire first class likenesses of themselves, or their friends, should call at his Saloon immediately, where he is prepared, having one of the largest and most convenient houses of the kind, best apparatus and superior arrangement of light to do all work pertaining to the business according to the latest improvements, and in the BEST STYLE OF THE ART.

Pictures taken at all hours of the day, in foul as well as in fair weather, in the latest and most approved style, and neatly set in

FRAMES, CASES, LOCKETS, PINS, RINGS, SEALS,

&c., in as good style as those taken in cities and warranted permanent.

He keeps constantly on hand a good assortment of Lockets, Frames, Cases, &c. at very reasonable prices according to the size and quality of the goods.

Pictures of Churches, Public or Private Houses or Scenery of any kind taken to order.

Ambrotypes copied from other Ambrotypes, Daguerreotypes Portraits &c. to order.

Miniatures of the sick or deceased taken at their residences if desired. Far more valuable would these be if taken in health, yet a great many persons are still without pictures; therefore be wise for yourselves and let not this opportunity pass, lest you have cause to regret it.

Fathers and Mothers, what can you bequeath to your children at so trifling an expense as your likeness. What will so vividly remind them of the parental precepts and example as a fac simile of those faces.

Improved Ambrotypes are superior to the Daguerreotypes for the following reasons.

1st. They are more durable. 2d, They can be seen in any light. 3d, Made in about one fourth of the time required by the Daguerreotype process which is very convenient for adults and also for young children, to which class I pay the most strict attention

LOCKETS.

With respect to locket Ambrotypes, as plate glass cannot be fitted to the Locket. I am inserting the beautiful Melainotypes which is equal to the best Ambrotypes. To all who purchase their Lockets of me can have them very cheap, and can also have the picture inserted at about one half the usual price, which will make their Lockets come very low.

Call at once--Remember he stops but a few days.

LEWISTON, AUG. 16th, 1858.

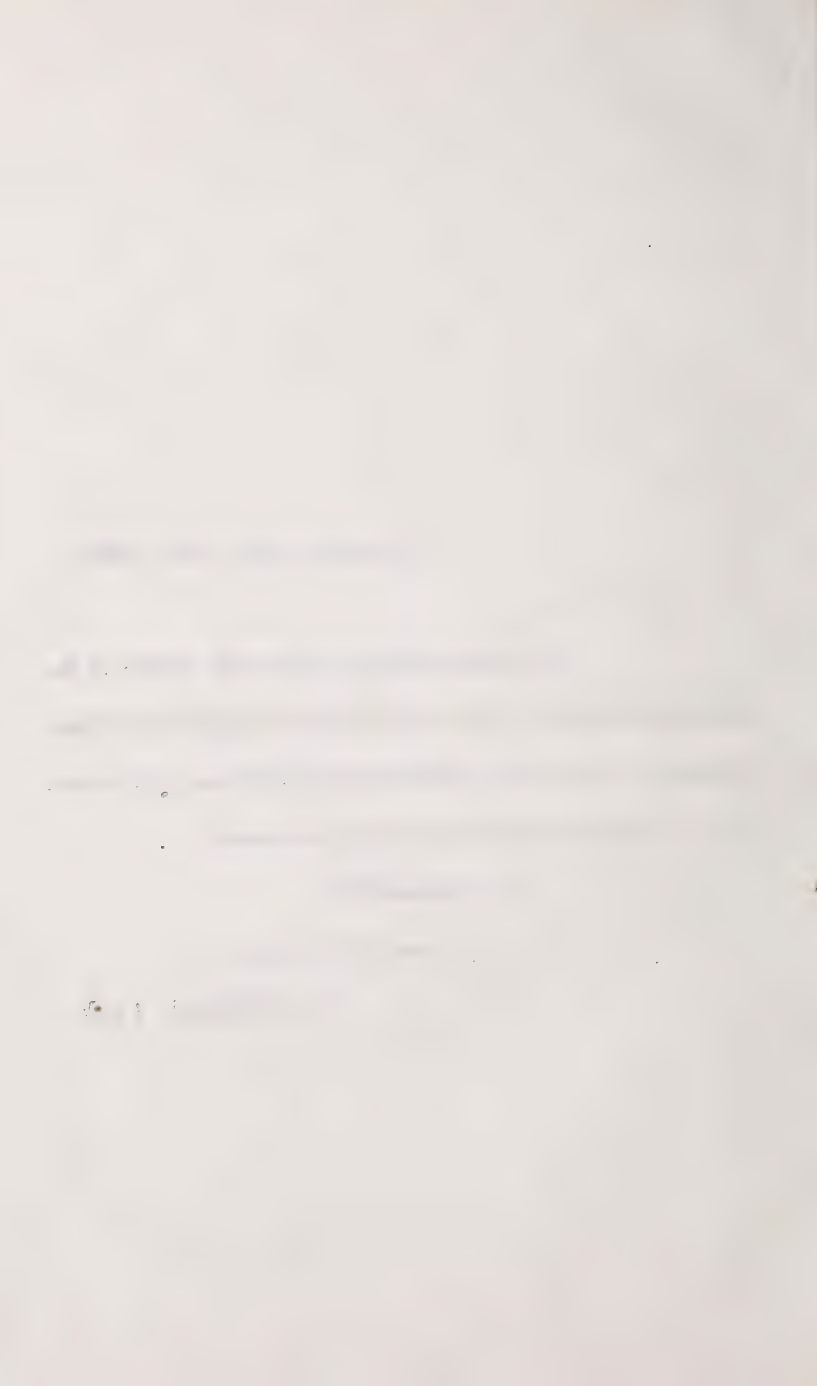

DEAR SIR:—

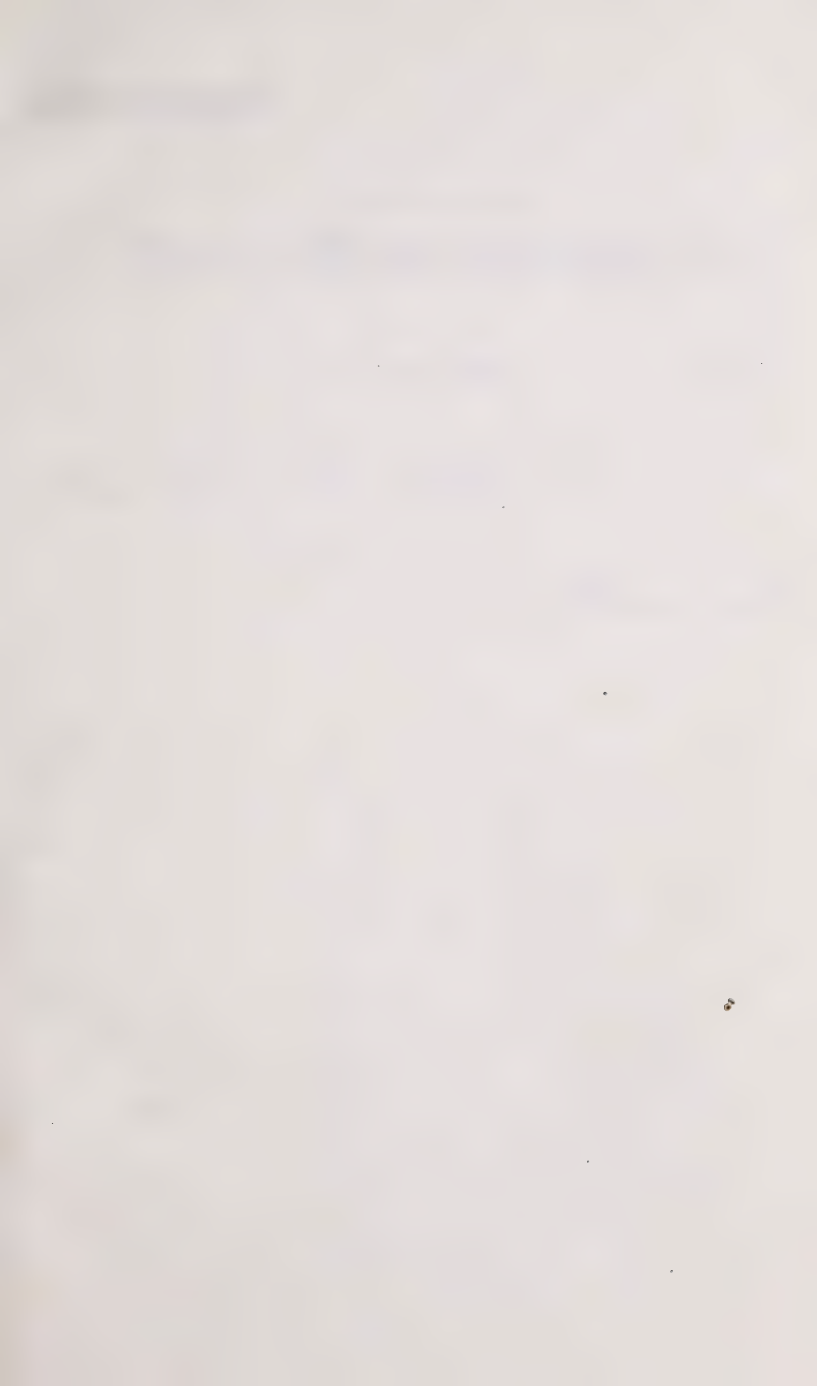

An informal meeting of the stock holders of the Lewiston Works Co., will be held at the Counting Room of said
Company. in Lewiston, on Saturday, the 21st inst., at 2 o'clock
P. M. Your attendance is respectfully requested.

Very Respectfully,

your Obed't Serv't,

N. MORRILL, Clerk.

OFFICE OF
Bates Manufacturing Co.,

Lewiston, 185 .

Mr. Benj. E. Bates, Tr.

Please send us

VALENTINE:-EXTRA.

Be it known that I, HERMON HOLT, now
To my friends and the public, respectfully bow,
Though all I can do, I cannot soon mention,
Yet still I would invite your most candid attention.

Just round the corner of Jones' Block, stop,
And there you will see Johnson's old Paint Shop;
There, if in want of a sign, large or small size.
My skill in this art will move your surprise.

If you have any graining you wish to have done,
Just bring it along, for I much like the fun:
Either to imitate Oak, Walnut, Satin-wood or Maple
Is rather a nice job, though to some, it looks simple.

Good imitations of Marble, from the old country or this
I will put on your mantels, tables or chests:
Imitations of all kinds of cut and ground glass,
And colored figures if you wish, to wind up at last.

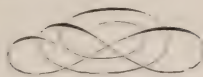

All graining and marbleing the trade may want done,
Just give me a call, and I'm ready to run:
And if you are in want of but a single nick-nack,
It is there you will find your humble mechanic.

All kinds of Painting, done with neatness and dispatch,
And for durability will be hard to out-match:
All work from the country, respectfully solicited,
And done up to order, as wished or requested.

I am thankful to my patrons for past favors received,
And hope, by strict attention their good will to achieve.
The panic now over, cash soon must be plenty,
And this we all greet, for we long have been scanty.
